NEWS—March 3rd Meeting & Beyond

Target Inventory

An inventory was done on all 3-D targets. Final decisions on replacement cores and new targets will be made at the conclusion of the 3-D shoot season.

League Prizes

Prizes for the 3-D league will be given for 1st, 2nd, & 3rd place in the Bowhunter Open, Bowhunter, and Traditional categories for members. 1st thru 3rd will receive a custom 22 oz. ceramic stein, with first place winners receiving an additional gift certificate/card (to be determined).

Newsletters

Will go out each month during the 3-D shoot season from now. If there is little new news, the previous letter will be sent with minor updates.

Banners from Sponsors

Club banners will be displayed on the cook shack. Sponsors who do not currently have their business displayed are being contact. Please give thanks to these sponsors if you see them. They are greatly appreciated.

Alaskans Afield Event

This Alaska Dept. of Fish & Game / Cook Inlet Archers event introduces youth and adults to archery. It will be held at the CIA Range on Saturday, June 13th from 10am to 1pm.

A few club members have volunteered to help teach archery to participants. Contact Club President Marc Much for more details or if you desire to help.

Grill Donation

Johnny Johnson has donated a grill to the club; Thank You Mr. Johnston

Vice President for 2015/16

Are you interested in getting more involved with Cook Inlet Archers? At this time we are seeking individuals who have interest in the position of Vice-President. There are also other ways to get involved; please contact one of our officers if you are interested.

May 17th Tailgate Gear Swap

Need to clear out that equipment that you meant to use but just haven't. Bring it to the gear swap at our May 3-D shoot on Sunday, May 17th. Folks can buy, sell, or trade amongst themselves. Please limit items to outdoor equipment.

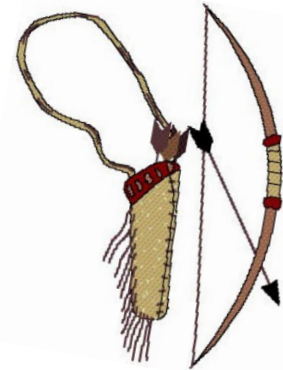

Cook Inlet Archers has received some anonymous donations of archery gear (vanes, broadheads, arrows, etc.) This equipment will be out for silent auction at the swap meet. Proceeds will go to replace club targets.

Bowhunter Education Requirement

Alaska Department of Fish & Game

Beginning July 1st, 2016, All hunters using a bow and arrow to hunt big game in Alaska must have successfully completed a department-approved bowhunter certification course.

Visit www.huntereducation.alaska.gov or stop at a Fish & Game office to sign-up for a class to complete this requirement.
